Dear Andreas,

Thank you very much for sending me all your data regarding the subject of FSMing. I appreciated hearing from you on this.

Your information was, in fact, very timely. I forwarded a copy of your letter to Executive Director International and Fields Executive International as the entire subject has just been under review and evaluation by International Management with the intention of resolving many of the exact points you brought up. You are right--FSMs are important and that's why I valued your report.

The FSM Series is your Source reference. And while Management will be evaluating it, I suggest you take action in the org by demanding a real FSM I/C exist as your terminal, helping to form future FSM rallies (that's where FSMs meet with the org!) and also demand other FSMs participate and get properly trained. And push for new FSM programs. So--you do that and in the meantime know that other actions are underway.

I wish you success and a whole new level of productivity as an FSM.

Love
